

BOPAPE ENTERPRISES, INC.

Equipping women with better tools to shine in their workplaces, and more importantly, in their families.

Author Bio

As president of Bopape Enterprises, Inc., Cherise Bopape shares resources with mothers of young children. Using a mixture of humor, sobriety, and slice-of-life vignettes, her devotional book, Lessons from the Littlest, explains tough Biblical lessons, applying them to the everyday experiences of the typical mother.

Having also contributed to such anthologies as America Remembered and How I Met My True Love, Cherise enlightens the masses. Her articles for The Lookout magazine, PRISM magazine, and Mustard Seed Ministries have provided gentle insight and encouragement.

Having appeared on local and international television programs, Cherise shares parenting tips and helps women increase their marketability. A domestic violence survivor, she advocates awareness and promotes resiliency.

Cherise, her husband, and three children reside in an Atlanta suburb where they enjoy southern cuisine, board games, and books galore.

Book Recap

Lessons from the Littlest: A Devotional for Mothers of Young Children prompts moms to be more cognizant of how God can use kids to bring godly perspective to light. Through this thirty-one day devotional, mothers can find inspiration in homespun stories, Scripture, prayers, and challenges. Mothers will see themselves depicted in many of the scenes as they grow in intimacy with Christ.
